

Revision sheet

1 Types of buildings les types de bâtiments

Residential buildings

bâtiments résidentiels

houses, apartments, villas...

Institutional buildings

bâtiments institutionnels schools, colleges, courts...

Commercial buildings

bâtiments commerciaux

shops, malls, supermarkets...

2 Materials: concrete les matériaux : le béton

sand sable

water eau

cement ciment

gravel gravier

crushed stones pierres concassées

CONCRETE

le béton

Concrete (le béton) is a mix of sand, water, cement, gravel and crushed stones.

3 Buildings have to be... un bâtiment doit être...

functional

fonctionnel

it works well for its use

aesthetically pleasing

beau, agréable à regarder

inviting

accueillant

it makes you want to come in practical

pratique

easy to use every day

They are designed for the space users = the space occupants (les usagers, les occupants de l'espace).

4 Why do we need buildings? pourquoi construire ?

Shelter (un abri): to protect people from

- natural calamities catastrophes naturelles (earthquakes, floods...)
- inclement weather le mauvais temps (rain, storms, heat...)

Comfort (le confort), for example:

- a curtain wall un mur-rideau: an outer wall made of glass, hung on the structure
- glazed vitré = fitted with glass

5 Key vocabulary le vocabulaire à connaître

ENGLISH	FRANÇAIS	NOTE
a dwelling G.N	une habitation	the place where you live a dweller P.N	un habitant	the person who lives there space users / occupants	les usagers	people who use a space openings	les ouvertures	= doors + windows
a revolving door	une porte tournante	found in hotels to step in	entrer	to walk into a place
a curtain wall	un mur-rideau	glass façade glazed	vitré	with glass
shelter	un abri	protection
a skyscraper	un gratte-ciel	a very tall building

A revolving door seen from above (plan).

6 What are the messages behind buildings? le sens des bâtiments

A building is not only a construction: it has a meaning. (un bâtiment a un sens)

A building speaks volumes about...

un bâtiment en dit long sur...

Skyscrapers (gratte-ciel) are built to display (montrer) power and wealth.

people's culture
la culture

people's religion
la religion

the climate
le climat

wealth
la richesse

LEARN BY HEART · À SAVOIR PAR CŒUR

- 3 types: residential, institutional, commercial buildings.
- Concrete = sand + water + cement + gravel + crushed stones.
- Buildings have to be functional, aesthetically pleasing, inviting and practical.
- Buildings give shelter (natural calamities, inclement weather) and comfort.
- a dwelling (the place) ≠ a dweller (the person) ; openings = doors + windows.
- A building speaks volumes about culture, religion, climate and wealth.